E. W. Bailey of Chicago has bought of Rufus Warren the farm down the river from Montpelier, long and familiarly known as "the Bailey place." There a stalwart family of children was born. There, the builder of the new Pavilion, active and notable men in their day and generation, have passed away. Dr. Bailey of Ticonderoga, N. Y., and E. W. ### Letter to Linley A. Averill.

Barre, Vt.
Dear Sir: The way to buy paint is to go by the name. There is a name never seen on sham paint or weak paint or short-measure paint; Devos.

There are a hundred different names in paint. Some are sham; some are weak; some short-measure; some all three.

If there is another such paint as Devos lead-and-zinc, we don't know it. There are a few fairly good paints; a few; only one Devos. A gallon Devos is worth a gallon-and-a-half of those few.

Mr. Aaron Higgins of Plainfield, N. J., always used 15 gallons of mixed paint for his house. Last spring he bought 15 gallons of Devos and had 4 gallons left.

F. W. Devos & Co.
P. S.—Reynolds & Son sell our paint.

The early bird catches the worm and the man who makes his seed purchase early is more sure of getting what he is looking for.

Many team horses are in need of a good "tonic" to tone them up in the Spring, especially those that have come through the Winter in rather thin flesh, and the present bad roads will reduce their flesh unless you increase their feed.
